

General Aviation/Support Development Considerations

- Additional hangar facilities
- Forest Service tanker base facilities
- Cargo facility consolidation
- Other aviation support development (as needed)

Note: The Master Plan does not address facilities occupied by the military or that support military operations. Military facility development is conducted by and through the U.S. Department of Defense.

General Aviation/Support Development Concepts

